Villa Lyrica is a recently renovated property located in the beautiful setting of Porto Cervo. Its dominant position, from which its name originates, allows to enjoy a breathtaking view of the entire harbor, in which beautiful yachts moor, and of the residential area scattered with beautiful villas. The skillful renovation of the property, built on several levels, has made it possible to preserve the characteristic appearance of this villa, masterfully balancing modern style with purely rustic aspects, typical of the Costa Smeralda.

Villa Lyrica is complete with A/C throughout the house, a fully equipped gym, sauna, a professional massage table, and a two-car garage.
